Following the implementation of GST, the import of commodities shall not be subject to erstwhile applicable duties like safeguard duty, education cess, basic customs duty, antidumping duty, etc. All these supplementary customs duties are subsumed under GST. If imported into India, the supply of commodities, services, or both shall be considered as supply under inter-state commerce/ trade and shall attract integrated tax (IGST). The IGST rate and GST cess shall be applicable on the 'Customs Assessable Value' plus the 'Basic Customs duty applicable thereon.'

15. FORCE MAJEURE CLAUSE: A Force Majeure (FM) means extraordinary events or circumstances beyond human control, such as an event described as an act of God (like a natural calamity) or events such as a war, strike, riots, crimes (but not including negligence or wrong-doing, predictable/seasonal rain and any other events specifically excluded in the clause).

An FM clause in the contract frees both parties from contractual liability and obligation when prevented by such events from fulfilling their obligations under the contract. An FM clause does not entirely excuse a party's non-performance but only suspends it for the duration of the FM. The firm must give notice of FM within a reasonable time as the conditions permit (say, not later than 14 days after its occurrence), and it cannot be claimed ex-post facto.

There may be an FM situation affecting the purchase organization only. In such a situation, the purchase organization is to communicate with the supplier along similar lines as above for further necessary action. If the performance in whole or in part or any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by any reason of FM for a period exceeding 90 (ninety) days, either party may, at its option, seek to terminate the contract without any financial repercussion on either side.

Notwithstanding the punitive provisions contained in the contract for delay or breach of contract, the supplier would not be liable for imposition of any such sanction so long as the delay and/or failure of the supplier in fulfilling its obligations under the contract is the result of an event covered in the FM clause.

19. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS TO REJECT / ACCEPT OFFERS: The Corporation reserves the right to reject or accept any offer/bid in part or full without assigning any reasons, or place order for part or full quantity. The Corporation also reserves the right to cancel the Purchase Enquiry without any discussions / correspondence with the tenderer.
