Where the tenderer is an authorized dealer of the OEM, such tenderer may submit documents of OEM for satisfying the above Pre-Qualifying Criteria supplied either through them (or) through any other authorized Dealer/ Distributor / Channel Partner.

Note:

NSL reserves the right to verify the authenticity of documents from the OEMs/ Concerned Buyers/ Customers. In case any specific adverse report is received against a tenderer, as an information or upon enquiry made by NSL, in respect of capabilities and performance of the tenderer, after receipt of tender but before the opening of the Price Bids, the quotation /tender submitted by such tenderer is liable to be rejected. If such report is received after opening of the price bids, then also the quotation/tender of that tenderer is liable to be rejected.

NSL also reserves the right to seek any additional related documents / any other financial documents, etc, if required.

Regarding Clarification of Bids/ Shortfall Document: - As per guidelines, No post-bid clarification at the initiative of the bidder shall be entertained by NSL. In case of any shortfall of documents, NSL shall seek the respective clarifications from the concerned bidders. However, no new credentials shall be allowed to be submitted after the opening of bids.

The shortfall information / documents shall be sought only in case of historical documents which pre-existed at the time of the tender opening and which have not undergone change since then. So far as the submission of documents is concerned with regards to pre-qualification criteria, after submission of the tender, only related shortfall documents shall be asked for and considered.

For example, if the bidder has submitted a supply order without its completion / performance certificate, the certificate can be asked for and considered. However, no new supply order shall be asked for so as to qualify the bidder.

If buyer needs more items along with the main item, the same must be added through bunching category based items or by bunching custom catalogs or bunching a BoQ with the main category based item, the same must not be done through ATC or Scope of Work.

Further, if any seller has any objection/grievance against these additional clauses or otherwise on any aspect of this bid, they can raise their representation against the same by using the Representation window provided in the bid details field in Seller dashboard after logging in as a seller within 4 days of bid publication on GeM. Buyer is duty bound to reply to all such representations and would not be allowed to open bids if he fails to reply to such representations.

All GeM Sellers/Service Providers shall ensure full compliance with all applicable labour laws, including the provisions, rules, schemes and guidelines under the four Labour Codes i.e. the Code on Wages, 2019; the Industrial Relations Code, 2020; the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and the Code on Social Security, 2020 as and when notified and brought into force by the Government of India.

For all provisions of the Labour Codes that are pending operationalisation through rules, schemes or notifications, the corresponding provisions of the pre-existing labour enactments (such as The Minimum Wages Act, 1948, The Payment of Wages Act, 1936, The Payment of Bonus Act, 1965, The Equal Remuneration Act, 1976, The Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972, etc. and relevant State Rules) shall continue to remain applicable.

The Seller/ Service Providers shall, therefore, be responsible for ensuring compliance under:

- All notified and enforceable provisions of the new Labour Codes as mentioned hereinabove; and
- All operative provisions of the erstwhile Labour Laws until their complete substitution.

All obligations relating to wages, social security, safety, working conditions, industrial relations etc. and any other statutory requirements shall be strictly met by the Seller/ Service Provider. Any non-compliance shall constitute a breach of the contract and shall entitle the Buyer to take appropriate action in accordance with the contract and applicable law.
